SUBJECT No. 664.

Pay of the District Fund officials.

Messrs. Dhalappa, T. Ramaswami Iyengar and Narasimhaiya, Anekal taluk and Puttappa, Bangalore District Board.

Summary of Representation.—It is prayed that arrangements may be made for payment of the salaries of the District Fund establishment in the same manner as the Revenue establishment. The present system of payment on cheques issued by the Presidents entails considerable delay.

F. B. 80 – 14 – 1.

(1) Opinion of the Comptr & H. Secy:—

Rule 38 Cl (1) of D.F. Rules empowers ~~empowered~~ the Pres. to delegate in writing any of his powers & the Vice Pres. If such delegation is made in respect of the power of deputing Estt. &c when the Dy Comr is away from Hd Qrs, the hardship will be minimised.

2) Secret. notes:— The subject deserves consideration as practical difficulties necessitate delay under existing conditions. The delay found as inevitable by experience requires a suitable cure.

3) The subject has already been Comm^d for Consideration of Govt. and orders have been issued in accordance with the opinion of the H. Secy ~~to~~ above.

Unions is being considered - it is likely that eventually they will be authorised to pay their employees and the delay due to the Dy Comr- Pres having to sign all cheques will be avoided.

6) Moreover the question is sufficiently important to be considered independently as the prompt payment of the salaries of a large class of public servants is involved.

7) If approved, the Comptroller may be consulted as to the best solution under the circumstances.

8) Metters does not appear to be any insuperable difficulty in allowing the establishment bills only of L B employees to be ~~being~~ cashed at the Taluk Treasuries, as in the case of Municl employees.
